

Bruce Gupton Marries

Miss Jacqueline Georgette Fouquereau of Rennes, France, was married to Omega Bruce Gupton Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Omega Bruce Gupton of 701 Mayflower Drive Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church.

The bridegroom's parents received afterward in the church.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Charles Fouquereau of Rennes.

The couple will live at the Colony Apts., Chapel Hill, where the bridegroom is working toward a master's degree at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

The bride graduated from high school in Fountainbleau, France, and attended Pulteney College in London, England. She worked as an IBM programmer for the U.S. Government in Zweibrucken, Germany.

The bridegroom graduated from Grimsley High School and Wake Forest University, where he joined Alpha Kappa Psi and Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternities. He was a captain in the army and served three years in France and Germany.

The bride, given in marriage by the bridegroom's uncle, Roy Franklin Batts, wore a dress of imported silk organza with a bodice of Alencon lace and a Watteau applique chapel train. Her illusion veil was attached to a crown of pearls and she carried a cascade of white roses, carnations and stephonia with ivy.

Mrs. Johnny Harold King, cousin of the bridegroom, acted as matron of honor in a dress with red velvet top and pink crepe skirt with red velvet train. Her bouquet was pink and red roses.

The bridegroom had his father for best man. James J. Tedder ushered with Wiley H. McGlamery Jr.
